NOTIFICATION.

The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the following shall be substituted for Rule 9 in Part I of the Ecclesiastical Rules published with the Home Department Notification No. 465, dated the 6th November 1909:— (2).

Rule 9.—Where there is a resident chaplain, he is responsible for the arrangements for digging a grave and for the preparation of a coffin. Should he find or anticipate difficulty in making private arrangements for digging a grave and preparing a coffin, he should apply, in military stations, to the senior military officer, and in civil stations, to the chief local magistrate, to make the necessary arrangements, and these officers are authorised to direct any local Public Works officer to do all that is necessary. The local Public Works officer will usually be the Assistant Commanding Royal Engineer in military stations and the civil executive engineer in civil stations; but the senior military officer in a military station and the chief local magistrate in a civil station may, in cases of emergency, direct the civil executive engineer or the Assistant Commanding Royal Engineer, respectively, to make the necessary arrangements. The resident chaplain is in all such cases responsible that timely notice is given to the Government officers who may be called upon to arrange for digging a grave and preparing a coffin.

The senior military officer in a military station and the chief local magistrate in a civil station may, should the resident chaplain report that private arrangements for digging graves and preparing coffins are not feasible, issue a general order on the Assistant Commanding Royal Engineer and the civil executive engineer, respectively, to dig graves and prepare coffins upon the requisition of the resident chaplain. The expenditure incurred by the executive engineer will be held in his miscellaneous advance account till repaid by the officer under whose special or general order it was incurred.

During the absence of the resident chaplain from the station, the senior military officer in a military station and the chief local magistrate in a civil station shall be responsible for the arrangements for digging graves and preparing coffins.

NOTE.—The expenses incurred in connection with the burial of paupers who die within cantonment limits will be defrayed from cantonment funds under the authority of section 29 (1) (l) of the Cantonment Code. In the case of paupers who die out of cantonment limits, the expenses will be defraved by the magistrate of the district.
